Big River

27 minutes - Curt Ellis, Aaron Woolf

Curt and Ian, the filmmakers of KING CORN, have returned to Iowa with a new mission: to investigate the environmental impact their acre of corn has had on the people and places downstream. In a journey that extends from the American heartland to the Gulf of Mexico, the guys trade their combine for a canoe and set out to see the big world their little acre of corn has touched.

Ascending the Giants

12 minutes - John Waller

You may hug a tree, but would you climb one? Join tree lovers & climbers Brian and Will as they attempt to find Oregon's largest Sitka Spruce trees. Through their eyes, from both ground and canopy views, we discover the breathtaking beauty of these beautiful giants.

Split Estate

15-minutes - Debra Anderson

Imagine discovering that you don't own the mineral rights under your land, and that an energy company plans to drill for natural gas two hundred feet from your front door. Imagine having little recourse, other than accepting an unregulated industry in your backyard.

Historia de Letrero

5.45 minutes - Alonso Alvarez Barreda, Daniel A. Blasquez Lopez, Omar Terrazas Gaona, Daniel Ponce de los Rios, Juan de Dios Avalos de la Tejera

With a stroke of the pen, a stranger transforms the afternoon for another man in this emotionally stirring film. Winner: 2008 Cannes Film Festival, Short Film Online competition.

Papiroflexia

2:30 minutes - Joaquin Baldwin

Spanish for "origami", Papiroflexia, is the animated tale of Fred, a skillful paper folder who could shape the world with his hands. Multiple awards.

INTERMISSION & RAFFLE

Secret Life of Paper

6 minutes - Mark Sugg, Loch Phillipps

Ever wonder what happens to the newspaper we read in the morning? Have you ever considered what impacts these products have on the environment, from beginning to end? INFORM's Secret Life of Paper highlights the environmental impacts of this product we use every day.

Nourish

26 minutes - Kirk Bergstrom, Linda Davis

What we eat, where we eat, and how we eat reveals much about our relationship to food. Today, more than ever, we need to understand where our food comes from and how it reaches us. If you want change, vote three times a day - with your fork!

Return to the Outdoors

5 minutes - David Gonzales, Jimmy Chin

Part of a six profile film series by Timex Expedition, this film project benefits the Conservation Alliance, which since 1989 has helped to preserve over 39 million acres of land in North America for recreational use. Learn what outdoor icon and endurance athlete, Luke Reynolds, has to say about his favorite wild places.

Planting Hope: Wangari Maathai & The Green Belt Movement

7 minutes - Lisa Merton, Alan Dater

The simple act of planting trees by Kenyan Wangari Maathai grew into a nationwide movement to safeguard the environment, protect human rights, and defend democracy—a movement for which this charismatic woman became an iconic inspiration and the winner of Nobel Peace Prize.

What is That?

6 minutes - Constantin Pilavios

Father and son are sitting on a bench. Suddenly a sparrow lands across them and their story comes full circle.

Generations: A Perspective on Climate Change

17 minutes - Steve Jones

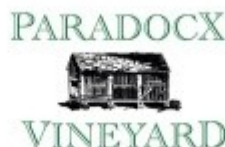

For many, snowy winters have a deep significance - culturally, personally, and financially. Going beyond charts and numbers, this new film humanizes the debate on climate change by exploring the delicate balance of winter and the intrinsic value of snow to people across generations and cultures.

Lady Bug Swarm

3 minutes - Michael Ramsey

Enjoy one of the wonders of nature...and rediscover the beauty of nature through the eyes of a child.
